NOTES:

Newlywed Games

THE SHOE GAME

The DJ/MC places two chairs back to back in the center of the dance floor. The DJ/MC asks the newlywed couple to take a seat. Once seated, The DJ/MC asks the couple to remove one of their shoes. Once removed, the DJ asks them to exchange shoes, so now the bride is holding the groom's shoe and the groom is holding the bride's shoe. The DJ/MC instructs the newlywed couple that he/she will ask a series of questions and if the answer pertains to your new spouse, you will raise his or her shoe. The initial questions usually are about how the couple first met. The DJ/MC may inquire about the answer to let the guests know a little more about the couple. Of course, the guests are wondering how well the couple know each other, so the fun is how the couples answer their questions and the rapport between the couple and the DJ/MC. This game is recommended for all couples.
